The Heights of North Houston Rehabilitation and Skilled Nursing Center Officially Opens

[San Antonio, Texas] – Touchstone Communities®, a growing provider of rehabilitation and skilled nursing care in Texas, announced today that The Heights of North Houston Rehabilitation and Skilled Nursing Center has officially opened and is accepting residents and patients. The state-of-the-art rehabilitation and skilled nursing community is located at 303 Hollow Tree Lane, Houston, Texas 77090.

“We are excited that The Heights of North Houston is now officially open. Services at The Heights of North Houston will be beyond what the people in this part of Houston and the surrounding areas have ever seen,” commented CEO Stan Studer Jr. “We are proud to be assisting the people of this area and their families who need rehabilitation and long-term care services as well as supporting the economic growth in the Houston and surrounding areas by employing nearly 150 team members,” Studer added.

Leading the management operations at The Heights of North Houston will be Marilyn Booker, Licensed Nursing Facility Administrator (LNFA). “Setting a vision based on high quality of care and leading the day-to-day operations at The Heights of North Houston is an honor for me,” Booker stated. “I am proud to be joining the Touchstone Communities team to help make this happen,” she added.

“The Heights of North Houston is based on an extremely visionary and innovative design in long term, rehabilitative care center design,” commented Nancy Wood, Regional Director of Operations. “We are proud that the community offers many amenities and comforts residents have long deserved and needed during this transitional time in their lives,” Wood explained.

The Heights of North Houston is a 131-bed community with 30 private rooms, all with private baths. The community is considered a home away from home, from outdoor activity areas with gardens and walking tracks to indoor dayrooms with kitchens, a private beauty salon, WiFi Internet throughout and a modern therapy department that includes highly technical gyms and equipment. The community officially opened on January 23, 2014. For more information, call 1-832-705-8700 or visit HeightsNorthHouston.com.
