Las Palmas Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Appoints Local Citizens to Advisory Council

[Cotulla, Texas] – Las Palmas Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Administrator, Matthew Sealy, LNFA, appointed 12 influential La Salle County citizens as members of the community's Advisory Council.

The Advisory Council is created to seek progressive input on community outreach and business development. All council members represent professional areas in La Salle County – Hood Medical Clinic, City Government and The NIX Community Hospital of Dilley.

"This is a great step forward for Las Palmas Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation," said Sealy. "We created the Advisory Council in order to get a better understanding of how to grow in this community; and who better to help us than a diverse group of prominent caring citizens of the greater La Salle County area."

Council members will meet regularly at Las Palmas Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation to advise Sealy and his team. "I'm looking forward to spending quality time with these amazing ladies. They are filled with passion when it comes to La Salle County."

Las Palmas Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation is a homelike residential living community that offers both short-term and long-term care for seniors. Las Palmas is owned by La Salle County and operated by Touchstone Communities®.
