Gabel Named VP of Revenue Management at Touchstone Communities

[San Antonio, Texas] – Touchstone Communities, a San Antonio-based long-term care provider, recently announced the promotion of Cindy Gabel to Vice President of Revenue Management. Gabel assumes her new duties immediately. She joined the Touchstone team just over four years ago.

“With Touchstone’s continuing growth and focus on excellence, I am pleased to announce this new role for Cindy which will be to provide strategic direction and oversight to the revenue and billing process,” commented Lynnea Castillo, Touchstone Communities’ Chief Financial Officer. “Cindy is extremely deserving of this promotion into what is a newly-created role for Touchstone Communities which will help us continue to focus on quality of care, serving our residents, and supporting our team,” Castillo added.

“I am very honored and excited to be the new VP of Revenue Management,” stated Gabel. “Touchstone Communities is a wonderful organization that remains committed to our vision of being the dynamic network of premier health care communities devoted to excellence through quality and integrity,” she explained. Gabel brings over 15 years of financial services experience to her leadership position at Touchstone Communities. She holds a Bachelor’s Degree from Oklahoma State University.
