Touchstone Communities Named “Best Place to Work” 2017

[San Antonio, Texas] – Touchstone Communities was chosen as a “Best Places to Work” 2017 winner by the San Antonio Business Journal for the sixth year in a row. Touchstone will be honored during an awards luncheon at the Grand Hyatt on July 20, 2017. The honoree companies attending the awards ceremony are those whom scored the highest within their category and Touchstone was amongst those in the large companies’ category.

Stan Studer, Jr., Chairman of Touchstone said, “Congratulations to all of our team members who help make Touchstone Communities one of the best places to work for the sixth consecutive year. Touchstone is a terrific place to build a career; and we are glad our team members have chosen Touchstone to build their career. They are part of our growth and success. Though we are far from perfect, we are always striving to improve. We are excited to be honored by this award and want to thank each one of our team members who work tirelessly in creating a place that serves our customers like no other.”

The “Best Places to Work” awards honors companies in the San Antonio area which includes Bexar, Atascosa, Guadalupe, Wilson, Comal, Bandera, Medina, and Kendall counties. To determine this year’s winners, San Antonio Business Journal teamed with Quantum Workplace, who surveyed employees through a secure website posing a range of questions in categories relating to teamwork, leadership, benefits, and work engagement.
